IN AFFER YEARS, When too inte to be bruefitted by our knowledge, we look back and mourn, and regret the full consequences of one ignorance.

What would we not often give to possess, in early life the knowledge we obtain in after years! And what day, and nights of anguish we might not have been spared, if the knowledge was timely possessed. It is MELANCHOLY AND STARTLING To behold the sickness and suffering sudared by many s wife for many years, from causes simple and controllable, easily remedied—or better stilk—not incurred, if every

. WIFE AND MOTHER Possessed the information contained in a little volume, (within the reach of all) which would spare to herself YEARS OF MISERY. And to her husband the constant toll and anxiety of mind-necessarily devolving upon him from sickness of the wife, without giving him the opportunity of acquiring that com-petence which his exertions are estilide, and the proses-sion of which would secure the happiness of himself wife, and children.

SECURE THE MEANS OF HAPPINESS By becoming in time possessed of the knowledge, the want of which has caused the sickness and poverty of thousands.

In view of such consequences, no wife or mother is excussible if she neglect to avail herself of the show-ledge in respect to herself, which would apare her much suffering, be the means of happiness and prosmerity to fire, husband, and confer upon her children that blessing above all price—healthy bodies, with healthy minds. That knowledge is contained in a little work entitled his forekead just above the eye-brows, he may try to hide it by wearing his cap or hat down over his forchead. He will be sure to pass himself for a white man for he is very white and has been taking great care of his skin for some time. When he left he had a cloth cap, black coat and a dark colored pair of pants. He will be sure to change his cap and clothes as soon as he can; he also wears his hair in front straight down to hide the scar of the blis-
